

Adult Discussion Questions: Romans 2

Discussion Starter: “I can’t believe in a God who would judge people”. How would you respond to this objection to the Christian faith?

Digging Deeper:

1. In Romans 2:1-6, Paul shows that even good, religious people come under the judgement of God. What stands out to you from this passage and why?

Changing Our Hearts:

2. Why is the judgement of God such an important reality for us to grasp, especially as we seek to live on mission?

Opportunities Around Us:

3. How are you feeling now that we are in week four of lockdown? What has God been teaching you, or working on in you?
4. Who has God put on your heart recently and how have you responded to this?
5. What has God made clear to you that you want to make sure you take with you out of lockdown?

Family Discussion Questions

1. One day, we will all stand before God and give an account of our lives. Is this good news or bad news?
2. God is a holy judge. We constantly sin and struggle to live like God wants us to. How is Jesus the solution to our problem that we will one day be judged?
3. What is the difference between being “religious” and being a Christian?
4. Go to www.hopechurch.org.nz and click on the link “Family Worship”. Explore and try something new as a family.
5. Consider doing a short “video” shout out to Hope Church that we can use in the service next week. Contact Steve on steven@hopechurch.org.nz.