

Romans 6:1-14 - Life Group Leaders' Questions
Sunday August 2, 2020

Discussion Starter: Do you think that we are “real” about the struggles that we have with sin?

Digging Deeper

In Romans 1-5, Paul explains what the grace of God does for us – saving us from the penalty of sin and into a relationship with God by grace. In Romans 6-8, Paul explain what the grace of God does in us – helping us to be new people.

1. What do you think of the question that someone asks in Romans 6:1?
2. Paul outlines a number of things about “the new you” in the rest of these verses. What do you find helpful?

3. How would you counsel someone who says the following things?

“Whenever we talk about this, I feel defeated and guilty. I lost hope for change a long time ago.”

“I don’t actually sense any struggle with sin in my life – all is sweet!”

“I have a particular sin that I just can’t deal with. How can I beat it?”

4. If we believe in the truth and fight of Romans 6:1-14, what kind of church should we be?
5. Discuss what you would like your life group and friendship group to be in light of your discussion?
6. What is one thing you would like to do/be to help foster your vision from the previous question?
